

Bank Churn Analysis

Report Dashboard

10K

No Of Customers

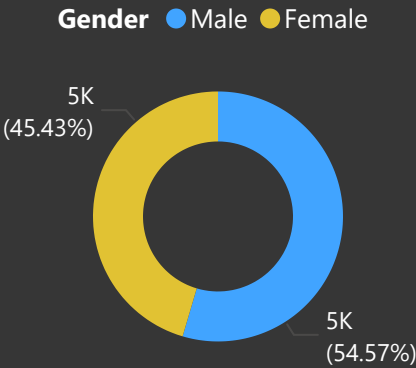

2037

Lost Customers

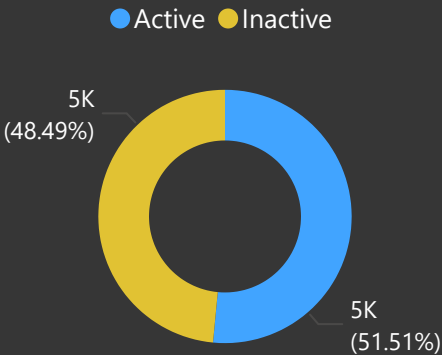

20.4%

Churn Rate

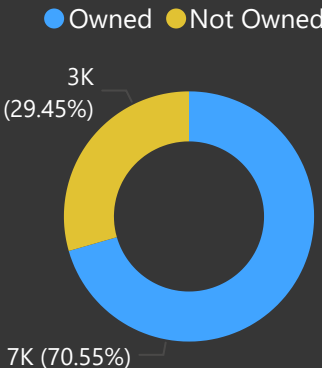

Customers by Gender

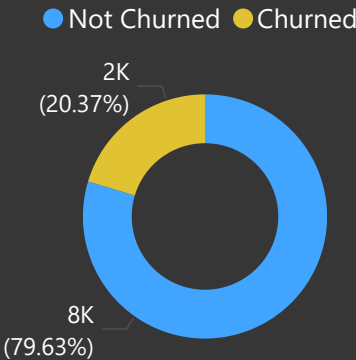

Customers by Activity Status

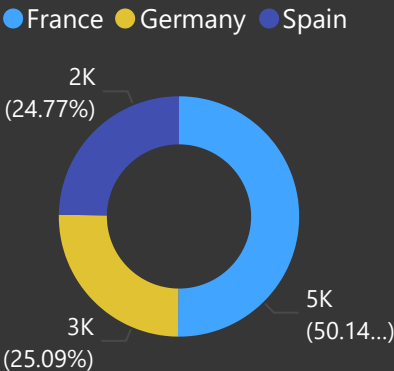

Customers by Credit card Status

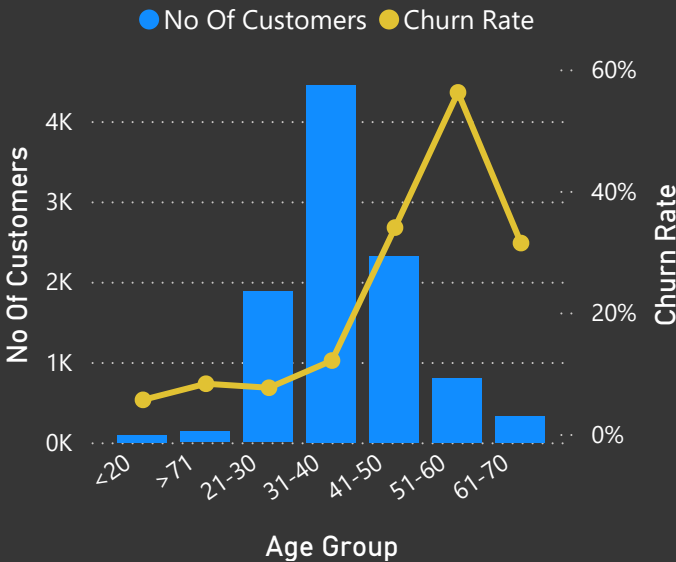

Customers by Churn Status

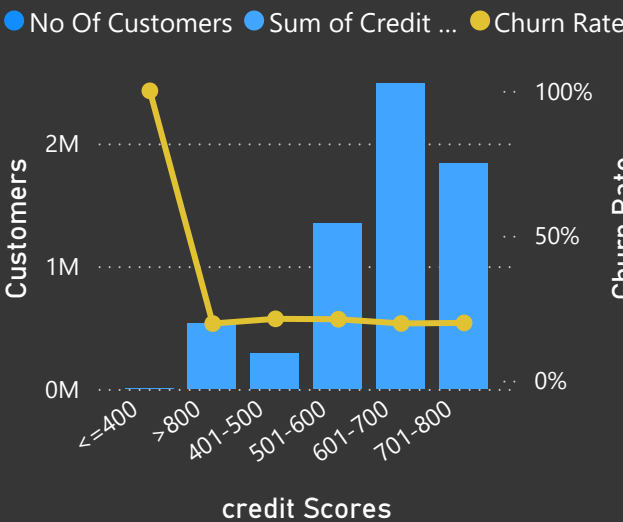

Customers by Country

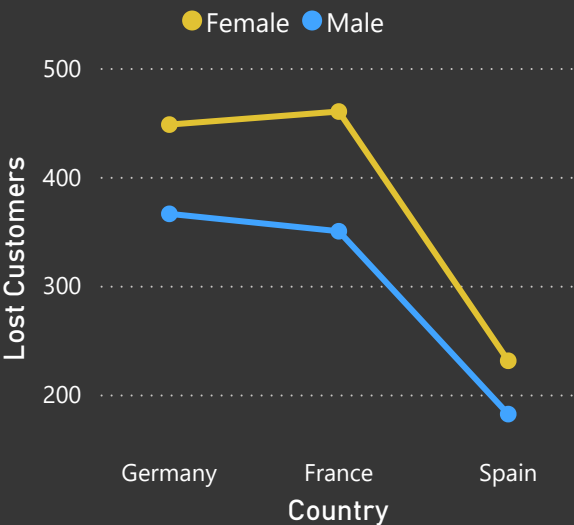

Customers and Churn Rate by Age Group

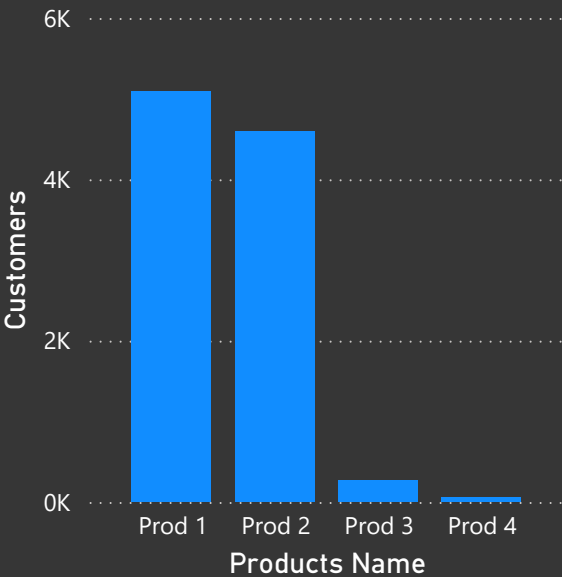

Customers and Churn Rate by Credit Scores

Lost Customers by Country and Gender

Customers by Products Name

Low Product Usage Increases Churn Insight: - Customers using only 1 product churn more - Product 1 & 2 dominate usage, while others are underutilized Business Action: - Cross-sell additional products to single-product customers	Low Credit Score Customers Are at High Risk Insight: - Customers with credit scores below 400 have very high churn - Churn decreases as credit score improves Business Action: - Provide financial counseling and flexible repayment options - Offer credit improvement programs instead of exit	Inactive Customers Are High Risk Insight: - Nearly 48.5% of customers are inactive - Inactive customers show higher churn probability Business Action: - Introduce re-engagement campaigns (emails, app notifications) - Offer limited-time incentives for inactive users	High Overall Customer Churn Insight: - Overall churn rate is 20.4%, meaning 1 in 5 customers leave the bank. Business Action: - Launch churn prediction alerts for high-risk customers - Monitor churn monthly using KPIs and trend lines
---	--	---	---

 Business Impact Summary  Potential churn reduction by 5–8%  Increased customer lifetime value  Improved customer satisfaction & loyalty  Data-driven decision-making for stakeholders  Final Executive Takeaway	Bank Customer Churn Business Key-Insights 	 Business Recommendations  Focus retention campaigns on: - Age group 41–60 - Inactive customers - Low credit score customers  Country-specific strategies for Germany & France  Encourage credit card adoption  Push cross-sell offers to increase product usage  Design female-focused engagement programs
---	--	---

Credit Card Ownership Reduces Churn Insight: 70.5% customers own a credit card - Customers without credit cards churn more Business Action: - Promote credit card adoption for eligible customers - Bundle credit cards with rewards and cashback offers	Female Customers Show Higher Churn Insight: - Female customers have a higher churn rate across all countries Business Action: - Create personalized offers for female customers - Improve service experience based on feedback & usage behavior	Middle-Aged Customers Are Most Likely to Leave Insight: - Customers aged 41–50 show the highest churn - Age group 51–60 is the second highest Business Action: - Design loyalty programs for mid-age customers - Offer long-term financial products (insurance, retirement plans)	Country-Level Churn Patterns Insight: - Germany and France contribute the most lost customers - Spain has the lowest churn Business Action: - Prioritize retention budgets in Germany & France - Replicate Spain’s customer engagement strategy in other regions
--	---	---	--